

SOCIETY

JENNIFER HARRIS/The Warren Record

LEARNING ABOUT LOCAL HISTORY—Students in an elective class at Warren Early College High School that focuses on history and architectural styles found in Warren County have participated in field trips recently as part of their training to serve as docents for Preservation Warrenton's 2012 Spring Homes Tour April 28-29. Here, they take a quick break after discussing specific features at Whitsome, one of the homes on the tour. Pictured from left to right are, front row: Elliott Evans, Haley Short, Caitlin Conn, Victoria Perry, Yazmin Obregon, Khadijah Tucker, Morgan Richardson; back row: Dontravious Harrison, Bradlie Dunham, Cristina Paynter, Kyel Owens, Gary Massenburg, Jr., Ashley Copeland, Deitrick Richardson and Noel Robertson, Preservation Warrenton president and class instructor.